Policy for Identification of 'Material' Litigation

In terms of the SEBI (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2018, as amended ("SEBI ICDR Regulations"), the Issuer shall disclose all the litigations involving the Issuer, its Directors, Promoters and Group Companies related to:

- i. All criminal proceedings;
- ii. All actions by statutory / regulatory authorities; and
- iii. Taxation - Separate disclosures regarding claims related to direct and indirect taxes, in a consolidated manner giving details of number of cases and total amount.

Besides the above mentioned litigations, other material pending litigations, as per policy of materiality defined by the Board shall also be disclosed in the Offer Documents.

In this regard, all other pending litigation involving the Issuer, its Directors, Promoters and Group Companies other than criminal proceedings, statutory or regulatory actions and taxation matters, would be considered 'material' for the purpose of disclosure in the Offer Documents, if:

- i. the aggregate amount involved in such individual litigation exceeds 1% of [total revenue/profit after tax] of the Company, as per the financial statements for the most recently ended financial year; or
- ii. where the decision in one litigation is likely to affect the decision in similar litigations, even though the amount involved in such single litigation individually may not exceed 0.25% of the [total revenue/profit after tax] of the Company as per the financial statements for the most recently ended financial year, if similar litigations put together collectively exceed 0.50% of the [total revenue/profit after tax] of the Company, or
- iii. litigations whose outcome could have a material impact on the business, operations, prospects or reputation of the Company and the Board or any of its committees shall have the power and authority to determine suitable materiality thresholds for the subsequent financial years on the aforesaid basis or any other basis as may be determined by the Board or any of its committees.

In this Policy the term:

1. Issuer/Company means Agarwal Toughened Glass India Limited.
2. Promoter Group means Agarwal Toughened Glass India Limited.
3. Offer Documents means Draft Prospectus and the Prospectus

MATERIALITY POLICIES

This policy ("Policy") has been formulated to define the materiality policy for identification of group companies, litigation and outstanding dues to creditors in respect of Agarwal Toughened Glass India Limited ("Company") for the purposes of relevant disclosure in the Offer Document (defined herein below) pursuant to the requirements under Schedule VIII of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2009 (as amended from time to time) ("SEBI ICDR Regulations").

Identification of 'Material' Group Companies:

Requirement:

As per the requirements of the SEBI ICDR Regulations, "Group companies", wherever this term occurs, shall include such companies as covered under the applicable accounting standards (i.e. Accounting Standard 18/Ind AS 24 issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India) and also any other companies as considered material by the Board. The policy on materiality for determination of such companies as considered material by the Board, as below, shall be disclosed in the draft red herring prospectus, red herring prospectus and prospectus issued by the Company in accordance with the provisions of the SEBI ICDR Regulations for the initial public offering of its equity shares (the "Offer Documents").

Policy on materiality:

For the purpose of disclosures in the Offer Documents, as prescribed under the SEBI ICDR Regulations, all companies which are identified as related parties (in accordance with AS 18/Ind AS 24 issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India) on the basis of the restated consolidated financial statements to be included in the Offer Documents shall be identified as 'Group Companies' in the Offer Documents. In addition to group companies determined as per AS 18/Ind AS 24, the companies that are considered material by the Board shall be disclosed as 'Group Companies' in the Offer Documents. A company shall be considered material and disclosed as 'Group Company' if a material adverse change in such company, can lead to a material adverse effect on the Company and its revenues and profitability.

For the avoidance of doubt, it is clarified that the above policy on materiality shall be without prejudice to any disclosure requirements, which may be prescribed by SEBI and / or such other applicable authority with respect to listed companies and that the above policy on materiality is solely from the perspective of disclosure requirements prescribed under the SEBI ICDR Regulations with respect to the Offer Documents and should not be applied towards any other purpose.
